Teachers, are you teaching nutrition in your classroom? Check out the Child Nutrition Programs' Lending Library for lots of resources you can use for free.

It is as easy as visiting our website at <http://www.sde.idaho.gov/site/cnp>, then clicking on the "Training Resource Center" button. This is where you will find the Library with hundreds of materials on nutrition and health. Go ahead. Pick the category you are interested in, put the materials in the basket, and we will send them directly to you. The only cost to you is return shipping. It couldn't be easier.
